

MTA Social Media Terms of Use

This page contains community guidelines built on mutual respect between users of the social media accounts of the Motor Trade Association Inc (“MTA”) and the communication tools (including forums for posting) on any MTA platform. It also states the disclaimer, copyright and conditions of use for MTA's social media accounts such as Twitter, Facebook, Instagram, YouTube and LinkedIn.

Community Guidelines

We ask that you engage with us and other people on these pages in a respectful and lawful way. Please don't post any content that:

- Uses indecent or offensive material
- Exploits children or young people
- Demonstrates or promotes unsafe behaviour unless for education purposes or similar
- Causes unjustified fear or distress
- Undermines health or wellbeing, or
- Encourage environmental harm or degradation.

We reserve the right to remove any content we believe violates our terms of use. We may also report, block or ban anyone or any profile/handle that causes conflict or posts the above content or comments, or who breaches these terms of use.

By joining our online community and engaging with us through social media you are considered to have consented to our social media terms of use.

You must also respect customer privacy and obtain consent to use personal information.

Disclaimer

All information provided is subject to change. The content of our social media channels are intended for informational purposes only. We will not accept any liability for loss or damage suffered by any person or body due to information provided on this site or linked sites.

We do not necessarily endorse a particular person or organisation when we follow, share, retweet, or 'like' content from them.

The information on our social media channels is provided on the basis that persons accessing the website undertake responsibility for assessing the relevance and accuracy of its content.

Updates to Terms of Use

These terms of use will be reviewed every 12 months to ensure they are fit for purpose and may be updated at any time without notice.
